

Bat Walk on The Great Lines Heritage Park

Contributed by admin

On the evening of the 19th September 2012, the Kent Bat Group and some of the Friends of Great Lines Heritage Park committee set off, armed with bat detectors, to survey the park. It was a cold and breezy evening and a little late in the year, and so we only heard common pipistrelle bats.